

How to get to Bicocca University

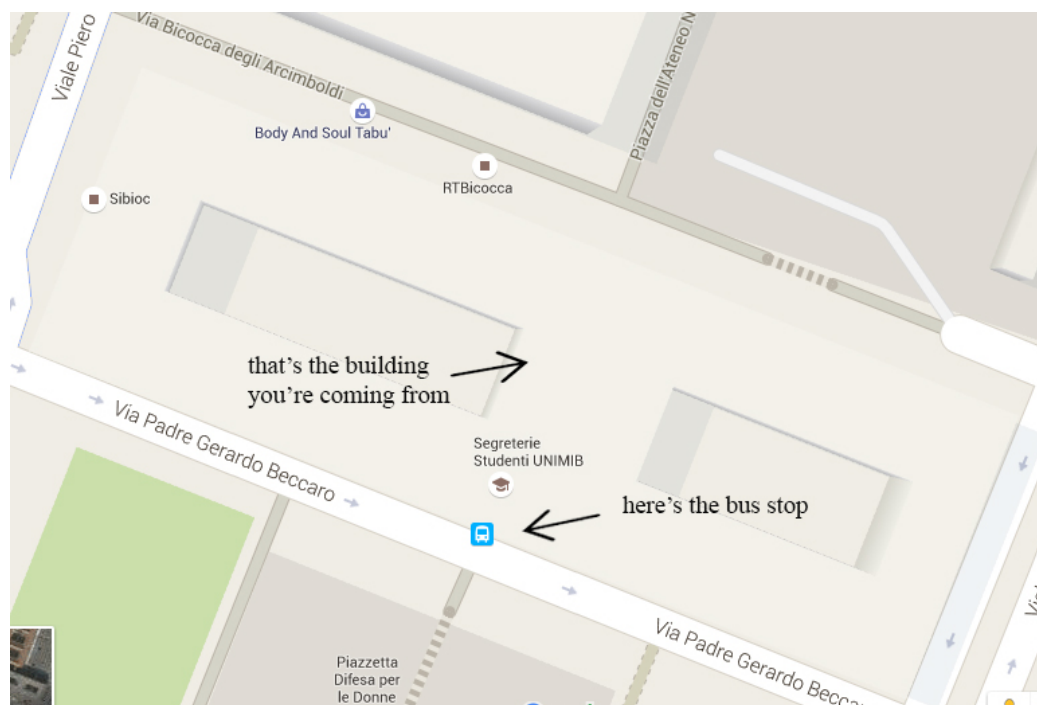

After you exit the Central Station, you have to go to the 87 bus stop (the lightblue square in the picture), take the 87 bus and take off the bus at Arcimboldi Ateneo Nuovo, you will see the U7 building on the other side of the road. The trip is going to take 15/20 minutes.

hint: the station has several exits, you can find the stop using the references I've put on the map. The stop is located in Via Fabio Filzi, near Piazza IV Novembre.

How to get back to the Station

The return is really simple, after you exit the U7 building you just have to cross the road and you will see the 87 bus stop that goes back to the station, as you can see in the picture below:

other indication: remember that the U7 building is near a big theatre (Teatro Arcimboldi in Italian), and also that coming back you're headed at the Central Station (Stazione Centrale) so in case you lost the road you can ask the driver or someone else using those keywords in Italian.

Otherwise you can contact us by mail/telephone.
